

TOP 5 REASONS YOU SHOULD WORK AT A STARTUP

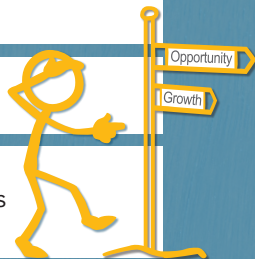

- Startups let you work closely with a small group of smart, motivated, talented people.
- Startups value your creativity and passion.

- At startups, your individual contributions can have a big impact.

- Startups can give you wide-ranging experience and career options.
- Women at startups report even more job satisfaction and better opportunities to grow than women at big companies.

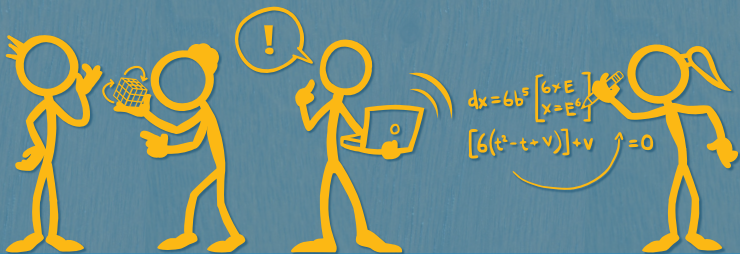

Information for this card came from the Level Playing Field Institute's The Tilted Playing Field; West & Simard's The Origins, Diffusion and Dissipation of Innovation Culture for Early Stage Technology Startups; and startup company websites.

Do you value diversity, innovation, and friendly company culture? We do, too.

We're the National Center for Women & Information Technology (NCWIT) Entrepreneurial Alliance. Our member companies are hiring.

CHECK OUT OUR STARTUP JOBS AT www.ncwit.org/startupjobs

ncwit.org NATIONAL CENTER FOR WOMEN & INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY
www.ncwit.org/ea • Twitter: @ncwit • info@ncwit.org • 303.735.6671

The NCWIT Entrepreneurial Alliance is supported by Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. and EMC².

NCWIT Strategic Partners: NSF, Microsoft, and Bank of America

NCWIT Investment Partners: Avaya, Pfizer, Merck, and Turner Broadcasting System, Inc.